

Sarasota analysts surveying stock-market damage

Excerpt from Sarasota analysts surveying stock-market damage

By John Hielscher

Posted Dec 18, 2018 at 5:05 PM

CUMBERLAND ADVISORS[®]

"If you're feeling stressed by the markets, there is nothing wrong with raising a little cash & selling down to your sleeping level. The key is trying to avoid emotional moves in the market." -McAleer

Connect with us

www.cumber.com

But while stocks look like they are stumbling to their first yearly loss since 2015, a number of experts are forecasting modestly better returns in the coming year.

A solid allocation plan should ease investors look through the volatility, said Matt McAleer, executive vice president and director of equity strategies at Cumberland Advisors in Sarasota, which has more than $3 billion under management.

"If you're feeling stressed by the markets, there is nothing wrong with raising a little cash and selling down to your sleeping level," McAleer said. "The key is trying to avoid emotional moves in the market."

Continued...

Read more at the Sarasota Herald Tribune

NOTE: Links to other websites or electronic media controlled or offered by Third-Parties (non-affiliates of Cumberland Advisors) are provided only as a reference and courtesy to our users. Cumberland Advisors has no control over such websites, does not recommend or endorse any opinions, ideas, products, information, or content of such sites, and makes no warranties as to the accuracy, completeness, reliability or suitability of their content. Cumberland Advisors hereby disclaims liability for any information, materials, products or services posted or offered at any of the Third-Party websites. The Third-Party may have a privacy and/or security policy different from that of Cumberland Advisors. Therefore, please refer to the specific privacy and security policies of the Third-Party when accessing their websites.