

Stock Market Panelist Richard Hoey featured at Financial Literacy Day III

USF Sarasota-Manatee, Cumberland Advisors, and the Global Interdependence Center invite you to our third annual Financial Literacy Day, to be held April 11, 2019, from 8:30 AM to 4 PM in the Selby Auditorium of the USFSM campus.

The theme this year is “Financial Markets and the Economy,” and the event will feature a number of panel discussions and special presentations, including:

The first session of the day, “The Stock Market,” will bring together Richard Hoey, Tripp Zimmerman, and Matt McAleer. The moderator will be Maryanne Waldman.

Richard Hoey is Senior Economic Advisor to BNY Mellon Wealth Management. He is responsible for monitoring all aspects of the economic environment including the global economy, the US economy, and the financial markets. He is a member of the Investment Strategy Committee of BNY Mellon Wealth Management and works closely with investment teams across the firm.

Richard has been an investment professional for over five decades, acting as a chief economist, equity portfolio manager, investment strategist and director of equity research.

Photo: Richard Hoey

He has been chief economist of a number of financial firms, including BNY Mellon, Mellon Financial, Dreyfus, Drexel Burnham Lambert, Prudential-Bache and Warburg Paribas Becker.

Mr. Hoey graduated from Yale College where he earned a B.A. degree in politics and economics and from New York University Graduate School of Business Administration where he earned an M.B.A. in investments.

Financial Literacy Day welcomes the participation of the general public. The cost is only $50 to register, and coffee, pastries, and lunch are included. Please reserve your spot soon – we expect to have a full auditorium. You can make your reservation online and learn more at <http://USFSM.edu/FinancialLiteracy>.